Edge Copper Obtains Receipt for Final Base Shelf Prospectus and Files Revised Technical Report

Not for distribution to U.S. news wire services or dissemination in the United States.

Vancouver, BC, April 8, 2026 – Edge Copper Corporation (TSXV: EDCU) (“Edge Copper” or the “Company”) announced today that it has obtained a receipt for its final short form base shelf prospectus filed with the securities regulatory authorities in each of the provinces of Canada (other than Quebec) (the “Base Shelf Prospectus”).

The Company also announced today that it has filed a revised technical report entitled National Instrument 43-101 Revised Technical Report, 2026 Preliminary Economic Assessment, Yavapai County, Arizona, USA in respect of the Zonia Copper Project (the “Technical Report”), reflecting feedback from the British Columbia Securities Commission. The Technical Report replaces and supersedes the previously filed technical report dated March 17, 2026. The key results, conclusions and recommendations contained in the Technical Report have not changed.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy, nor shall there be any sale of securities under the Base Shelf Prospectus in any state or jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to the registration or qualification of such securities under the securities laws of any such state or jurisdiction.

A copy of the Base Shelf Prospectus and the Technical Report can be found under the Company’s profile on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.

About Edge Copper Corporation

Edge Copper Corporation is a copper-focused exploration and development company advancing its wholly-owned Zonia Copper Project, a past-producing heap leach operation on private land, located in Arizona’s historic Walnut Grove mining district. With existing infrastructure and significant potential for resource expansion, the Zonia Copper Project is well-positioned to become a key U.S. copper development project. EDGE COPPER FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION DISCLAIMER

This press release contains “forward-looking information” within the meaning of applicable Canadian provincial and territorial securities legislation. Forward-looking information includes, but is not limited to, statements with respect to:

the potential issuance of securities of the Company, and other events or conditions that may occur in the future. Often, but not always, forward-looking information can be identified by the use of words and phrases such as "plans", "expects", "is expected", "budget", "scheduled", "estimates", "forecasts", "intends", "anticipates", or "believes" or variations (including negative variations) of such words and phrases, or statements that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "would", "should", "might" or "will" be taken, occur or be achieved and other similar expressions.

Forward-looking information involves known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors which may cause Edge Copper's actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by forward-looking information. These include, among others, risks relating to: Edge Copper's lack of revenue or history of earnings, cash flow from operations or profitability; the price of and demand for copper; estimates of mineral resources; exploration, development and operating risks; the laws and regulations governing prospecting, development, production and other matters; health, safety and environmental hazards; Edge Copper's lack of revenue from operations and the anticipated equity financing or other external financing sources to finance ongoing exploration and development; the need for and access to additional financing; the cost and availability of commodities required by Edge Copper's operations; public health crises; the requirement for adequate infrastructure to support the Company's mining, processing, development and exploration activities; the receipt and maintenance of permits; hazards not covered by insurance; increasing timelines and permitting requirements for the development of Edge Copper's projects; challenges to or impairment of title to the Company's properties; competition in the mining industry; the public's concern relating to the perceived effects of mining activities on the environment and host communities; the evolving regulatory obligations of public companies; the Company's dependence upon key management personnel and executives and competition for qualified personnel; future potential claims and legal proceedings; the integration of the Zonia Copper Project and Edge Copper's ability to hire and establish good relations with employees; potential undisclosed liabilities acquired in connection with the acquisition of the Zonia Copper Project; the volatility of the trading price of Edge Copper's common shares; the possibility that Edge Copper grants rights that restrict its ability to obtain additional financing; and Edge Copper's history with respect to the payment of dividends. The forward-looking information in this press release is based on several assumptions, including: no significant changes in applicable securities laws; the accuracy of Edge Copper's assessment of the development of the Zonia Copper Project; stability or increase in medium- and long-term copper prices; stability of exchange rates; obtaining permitting; Edge Copper's management achieving its development goals at the Zonia Copper Project; and the absence of any other factors that could cause actions, events or results to differ from those anticipated, estimated, intended or implied.

Risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond Edge Copper's control, could cause actions, events or results to differ from those anticipated, estimated, intended or implied by forward-looking information. Readers are cautioned that the foregoing list is not exhaustive of all risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors. Edge Copper cannot assure readers that forward-looking information will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such information. Although Edge Copper has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially, there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking information. Risks and uncertainties about Edge Copper's business are more fully discussed under the heading "Risk Factors" in Edge Copper's Annual Information Form dated as of March 20, 2026, which is available under Edge Copper's profile on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.

The forward-looking information contained in this press release represents Edge Copper's views and expectations as of the date of this press release. Edge Copper expects that subsequent events and developments may cause its views to change. However, while Edge Copper may elect to update such forward-looking information at a future time, it has no current intention of doing so, except to the extent required by applicable law.
